

SMITH & BRINK ANNOUNCES THAT SEAN WALSH HAS JOINED ITS MICHIGAN OFFICE

SMITH & BRINK is pleased to announce that Sean M. Walsh, Esq. has joined the firm's Michigan office. For more than 20 years, Attorney Walsh has focused his practice on litigating complex commercial disputes, including civil RICO actions; securities fraud and director, officer, and majority stakeholder liability disputes; healthcare disputes, including alleged medical billing irregularities; automotive supply chain planning and disputes; general business disputes; and insolvency, workout, and bankruptcy matters. Attorney Walsh frequently serves as first-chair trial counsel in state and federal courts. He also has extensive experience in administrative and regulatory forums, and advises clients on a broad array of substantive legal matters.

SMITH & BRINK is a national law firm with offices in Michigan, Massachusetts, New York, Philadelphia, and Rhode Island. The firm provides excellent customer service, competitive rates, and unparalleled results to its clients. SMITH & BRINK focuses its practice on the investigation and litigation of commercial and business disputes. SMITH & BRINK is the leader in investigating and combatting healthcare and insurance fraud in Michigan, and Attorney Walsh will be an integral part of the firm's Michigan complex business litigation team. Attorney Walsh's extensive experience will also provide additional, substantive depth to the firm's areas of practice.

For more information about SMITH & BRINK and Attorney Walsh, please visit www.smithbrink.com.